11. The fiscal year of the Society shall be the period from September 1 in any given year to August 31 in the year following.

GENERAL MEETING

12. (a) The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held within three months after the end of each fiscal year of the Society.

(b) An extraordinary General Meeting of the Society may be called at any time by (i) the Chairperson (ii) the Directors or (iii) when the Directors receive a written request by at least 25% of the members' total.
13. Two weeks notice of a General Meeting, specifying the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the nature of such business, shall be given to the members. If the member's email is listed in the current membership list, notice via email will be sent; alternatively, direct mail will be used. The non-receipt of any notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting.
14. At each Annual General Meeting of the society, the following items of business shall be dealt with and shall be deemed to be ordinary business:
 - Minutes of the preceding General Meeting;
 - Consideration of the annual report of the directors;
 - Consideration of the financial statements, including balance sheet and operating statement of the report of the auditors thereon;
 - Election of directors for the ensuing year;
 - Appointment of Auditors;
 - Changes to the membership fee

All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall be deemed to be special business and all business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary General

Meeting of the Society.

15. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting of the Society unless a quorum of members is present at the commencement of such business and such quorum shall consist of five members where at least one member is a peer supporter.

16. If within one-half hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum of members is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved. In any case, it shall stand adjourned to such time and place as a majority of the members then present shall direct and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum of members is not present, it shall be adjourned indefinitely.

17. (a) The Chairperson of the Society shall preside as Chairperson at every General Meeting of the Society.

(b) If there is no Chairperson or if at any meeting they are ~~is~~ not present at the time of holding the same, the Vice Chairperson shall preside as Chairperson;

(c) If there is no Chairperson or Vice Chairperson or if at any meeting neither the Chairperson nor the Vice Chairperson is present at the holding of the same, the Past Chairperson shall preside.

(d) If there is no Chairperson, Vice Chairperson or Past Chairperson present at the holding of the same, the members present shall choose someone of their number to be Chairperson.

18. The Chairperson shall have no vote except in the case of an equality of votes they shall have a casting vote.

19. The Chairperson may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting. Upon adjournment no business shall be transacted. At a rescheduled meeting the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place can proceed, unless notice of such new business is given to the members.

20. At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least three members, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes proceedings of the Society shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the members recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

21. If a poll is deemed in manner aforesaid, the same shall be such manner as the Chairperson may prescribe and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the decision regarding the resolution of the society in General Meeting.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

22. Every member shall have one vote and no more.

DIRECTORS

23. Unless otherwise determined by General Meeting, the number of directors shall not be less than five or more than twelve.

24. Any member of the Society shall be eligible to be elected to a director of the Society.
25. Directors shall be elected by members at each Annual General Meeting of the Society. A nominating committee shall be appointed by the executive at least two months before the AGM and shall consist of one Board member and at least two but not more than four others.
26. The members shall elect Directors from among their number. Directors may also be recruited from the local community. These individuals are required to become members of the Society for the duration of their term.
27. The terms of office of the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer of the Society shall be two years. The Chairperson should not serve more than two terms consecutively. The term of office of the directors of the Society shall be two years, with directors being elected each year to maintain at least four directors plus the Chairperson on the Board. Directors should not serve more than three terms consecutively. Notwithstanding this limit, a person who is retiring as Chairperson may serve an additional ½ term (1 year) as a director in the capacity of Past Chair.
28. At each Annual General Meeting of the Society, outgoing Directors shall hold office until the dissolution of the meeting at which their successors are elected. Outgoing directors shall be eligible for re-election in accordance with by-law #27.
29. In the event that a Director resigns their office or ceases to be a member in the Society, their office as Director is vacated and the vacancy thereby created may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the board of directors from among the members of the society.
30. The Society may, by special resolution, remove any director before the expiration of the period of office and appoint another person in their place. The person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the director in whose place they have been appointed would have held office if they had not been removed.
31. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as often as the business of the Society may require and shall be called by the Secretary. A meeting of directors may be held at the close of every Annual General Meeting of the Society without notice. Notice of all other meetings, specifying the time and place thereof shall be given in writing or by electronic communication to each director within a reasonable time before the meeting is to take place, but non-receipt of such notice by any director shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting of the Board of Directors.
32. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board of Directors unless at least one-third in number of the directors is present and where at least one member is a peer supporter at the commencement of such business.
